DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

IN RE: PATEL Atul P., Debtor.	Case No. 15-32936 (MBK)(lead) Jointly Administered
----- IN RE: PATEL, Parulben Debtor.	Case No. 16-18943 (MBK) Filed Electronically

OPPOSITION TO TRUSTEE'S MOTION TO HOLD DEBTORS IN CONTEMPT, TO DISMISS CASE AND TO GRANT FEES AS PENALTY FOR CONTEMPT

Returnable: October 17, 2016

Jeffrey D. Hoffmann, of the Law Offices of Jeffrey Hoffmann, LLC, of full age, hereby certify
as follows:

1. I am the attorney of record for the debtors, Atul Patel and Parulben Patel, in the above matter.
2. The circumstances surrounding this matter have, admittedly, been tumultuous.
3. At several different points following the submission of the first petition in this case, my clients felt it was in their respective best interests to change direction while struggling with the ideas of whether to try to maintain the credit Parulben Patel or else to file jointly and not have to be concerned about non-exempt assets. As a result, this case started out as a chapter 7, upon debtor's motion, was converted to a chapter 13, and, finally, back to a chapter 7. Subsequent to this final conversion to a chapter 7, a motion was filed for the joint administration. The reality of the situation is that, while my firm has been representing clients in bankruptcy petitions for over four years, every twist and turn of this case has represented a first for myself and for my office and mistakes have been made. The first motion to convert, to re-convert and for joint administration filed by my office are represented here. It is difficult to accept such errors from myself and my firm, yet I expect to not make them again, as a result.

4. All of this work was done with the intention of serving the interests of my clients, who were greatly distressed and unsure of the best course of action, despite the significant amount of time I spent discussing the case with them. Nothing, from the time of the initial filing has ever been an effort to abuse the system or process.
5. The Patels have done nothing wrong. Their errors in the instant action are limited to their indecision and an overlooked 341 hearing, which was, apparently, the proverbial straw that broke the camel's back, for Trustee Dobin, as she has indicated to me that she is completely unwilling to resolve the matter by consent order, whereby my clients would have filed a voluntary dismissal of the case.
6. While missing a 341 hearing is clearly a serious matter, it does not provide a basis for dismissing a bankruptcy petition with prejudice, which is but part of the relief requested by Trustee Dobin in the instant motion.

7. Since the bulk, if not all, of Trustee Dobin's complaints are directed at my firm, it is entirely unclear why she would even request a dismissal with prejudice as the harm that would result from such an order would fall squarely on my clients, unless this is a reflection of her self described inability to "rise above" her frustrations with the situation.
8. The concerns raised by Trustee Dobin's certification in support of her motion revolve around the administrative order in which she says the debtors are "wholly in contempt." While it is clear that errors were made, I believe that it is also clear that these errors were made, despite my efforts; not because of indifference on my part, the latter of which Trustee Dobin suggests in her certification.
9. While I appreciate the annoyance that a trustee must experience when having to address multiple motions on any case, those annoying motions which were filed since the initial filing of the lead case number on these jointly administered cases were within the debtors' legal rights to file and were granted.
10. With respect to the filing of amended schedules, pursuant to the court's administrative order, dated 7/29/16, it was through communication with the chapter 13 Trustee's office on 7/28/16, that my office was instructed to file amended schedules prior to 8/8/16. This communication actually predates the court's order, dated 7/29/16. Literally, the same day that the chapter 13 Trustee communicated to my office that the amended schedules needed to be filed we made sure they were filed. Upon reviewing the administrative order of the court, it did not appear that they needed to be refiled, as they were filed under case number 15-32936, which the court indicated would be the lead case number.
11. Subsequent to filing the amended schedules, I have learned that my bankruptcy software only automatically redacts documents when the petition is uploaded to CM/ECF directly from the software itself and not when one simply prints out amended schedules.

Unfortunately, because of this oversight, and for the first time ever, my office accidentally filed the schedules without redacting them. Only a portion of the amended schedules needed to be restricted from public view, as the upload was too large to be completed in a single upload, which meant that a portion of the schedules were still viewable on PACER under document 71.

12. On 8/11/16 Your Honor's chambers emailed my office requesting that we file an application requesting redaction of personal information and to file a redacted version.
13. During the course of all of this, I personally suffered a significant loss. On 8/7/16, I lost a man who was like a second father to me and nearly lost a woman who was like a second mother to me. I spent a large portion of the next two weeks sitting with their daughters at the ICU at Helene Fuld hospital while she remained unconscious and in a fight for her life. This was a man who helped raise me, married my wife and I and, years later, performed the service at my father in law's funeral. The loss was huge and, admittedly, slowed my responses in addressing some of the issues that arose in this case between then and now. I do not offer this information as an excuse, but, rather as an explanation as to the incompleteness of my responses.
14. It is still unclear to me what resulted in two different orders directing redaction, dated 8/12/16 and 8/24/16, respectively. It is also unclear why the re-filed schedules appear to be restricted, as well. I don't know if this is an error on my part or simply a technology issue.

15. Despite the errors that I initially made in failing to redact the schedules, I hope that it is clear to the court that efforts have continuously been made to try to correct the issue with respect to providing the amended schedules to the court and all parties.
16. Pursuant to the administrative order of the court, all pre-meeting submissions were made to Trustee Dobin's office, through the office's website and a copy of those uploads are attached hereto as Exhibit A.
17. The copy of the court's administrative order, served on all parties, including the debtors, is attached as Exhibit B.
18. While I did send a part time associate to appear at the 341 hearing on September 7, 2016, I had no reason to believe that this would present any problem, as it was my expectation that there were no open issues. My office had served all parties with the order, notified our clients of the 341 hearing, forwarded pre-meeting submissions to the trustee and diligently attempted to address all issues with respect to the amended schedules. Furthermore, we had not received any communication or indications from Trustee Dobin's office indicating the existence of any deficiencies. I explained the nature of a typical 341 hearing to my associate and had her research the process. I am not sure exactly what she said to Trustee Dobin, as it is difficult for one to recall what was said when a person unexpectedly lashes out. So, getting specifics from the associate has proven difficult. She did, however, recall the Trustee ranting that my entire office was incompetent. To my knowledge, Trustee Dobin didn't go on the record during these remarks, but she has made certain to reiterate her thoughts in her certification. While those words sting coming from such a highly regarded peer, who is so well liked and respected and about whom the community thinks so very highly, I maintain our mistakes in this case are a reflection of best efforts to represent my clients combined with a handful of mistakes that amount to human error, as opposed to incompetence.

19. Of additional concern to myself, my current clients, and my prospective clients is the fact that, in a certification wherein all of the frustrations and complaints are directed at my firm, the Trustee indicates that she will recuse herself, because she lacks the capacity to maintain objectivity. Particularly in light of the fact that Ms. Dobin has petitioned the court for the most draconian form of relief which may be obtained against the debtors, either because of errors on the part of my firm or for reasons that she has entirely failed to set forth, it is difficult to imagine that Ms. Dobin's frustrations with my firm will abate based solely on the fact that the case number is different. As a result, I am hard pressed to imagine how Ms. Dobin will be able to maintain a sense of objectivity in any case in which my firm is representing the debtor.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
